

Job Title: Quality Control Manager
Location: Apimenim, Western Region
Category: Senior Staff position
Industry: Agriculture

Company: Confidential
Status: Full time
Department: Factory

Job Scope:

Responsible for developing new and modified laboratory test procedures, equipment and software in addition to developing and maintaining laboratory quality systems according respective customer specifications.

Main Accountabilities:

MA1: Ensure that shipment targets are met without any claim related to quality and packaging
MA2: Ensure a good quality raw material to the production to enable the achievement of the set targets per specification
MA3: Ensure that the waste water or the effluent quality is within the acceptable limit of EPA
MA4: Ensure that all the equipment at the laboratory are efficient and give accurate results
MA5: Ensure the production of quality product to meet the customer specification through quality control
MA6: Ensure a high level of motivation among the laboratory team for optimum performance

REQUIREMENTS:

Education:

First Degree in Chemical Engineering or closely related field.

Experience:

- Minimum of 4 years relevant working experience in the theoretical and practical application of chemical/ mechanical engineering laboratory techniques.

Skills and Competence

- Knowledge in quality systems and standards
- Knowledge and experience in production and manufacturing processes and techniques
- Knowledge in health and safety standards and compliance
- Knowledge in process improvement techniques
- Knowledge in business, finance and management principles
- Knowledge in human resource principles and practices
- Knowledge in machines and tools
- Knowledge in engineering and technology principles and practices
- Knowledge in the rubber industry
- Ability to work with schematics, calibrate equipment, and deal with sensors
- Good knowledge of Word, Excel, and some programming languages
- Problem-solving skills
- Communication and Interpersonal Skills
- Good numerical and analytical skills

Closing date for all applications: 31st of October, 2017.